

WINE TOWN FALKENSTEIN

Spectacular vineyard locations, one of the most beautiful cellar alleys in the region and the majestic castle ruins that tower over the romantic village: Falkenstein offers a truly unique backdrop that can be seen from afar.

The winemaking history of the Weinviertel town goes back to the Middle Ages. Those interested can find out more about Falkenstein and its wine culture along the routes of the large hiking park "The Flight of the Falcon" and on an informative wine trail.

HEURIGER

This is probably the best place to enjoy our wines: In our modern Heuriger, Christa and Maria serve traditional dishes as well as contemporary interpretations of Weinviertler cuisine. The quality and origin of the ingredients is particularly important to us, which is why we mainly source them from our long-standing partners in the region.

The restaurant can accommodate around 60 people, while in the summer months the terrace in the rose garden invites you to linger. By appointment, we are happy to open for celebrations or wine tastings and are also set up for meetings and seminars.

GUEST ROOMS

Slowing down is the order of the day: Our four cozy guest rooms and a spacious Weinviertler Genießzimmer invite you to a relaxing holiday in the countryside. Discover Falkenstein, take a look behind the scenes on a cellar tour - or just relax and unwind.

WINERY STADLER

Our family business has been firmly rooted in the wine town of Falkenstein in the Weinviertel region of Lower Austria for around 300 years. What back then started with just a few vines has now grown to 35 hectares of vineyards.

Cultivating is done with the greatest care by Johannes Jr. and his brother Franz. Once in the wine cellar, the grapes are carefully processed and aged until they are ready for bottling. With his many years of experience, Johannes Sr. supports the next generation and delivers the wine to our customers.

Whether fresh and fruity Grüner Veltliner, strong Zweigelt or a glass of sparkling wine: We combine tradition with foresight - and stand for wines with character. Numerous awards for our product range confirm that we are on the right track with our awareness of highest quality.
